ENTHUSIASTIC Multitudes of intelligent, discriminating advertisers are admittedly enthusiastic about the unusual results obtained through classified advertising in The Sun and New York Herald. For example:

THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

Herald Square, New York City.

Aftertising in several morning papers without success. I was provailed upon to take advantage of your very reasonable rates. Candidly, I was decidedly scattcal about the outcome, but after inserting a Purushed Room advertisement in your paper for two days my conflicted in the classified columns of the Sun and New York Hersid was firmly established.

I secured very desirable responses to my advertisement and I am very enthusiastic about the service you extend. Yours Truly, (Mrs.) BERTHA BEYER

Without question surpassing good, the Furnished Room columns are only representatives of all classifications.

SALESMEN.

1st-We want men, 2d-We want selling ability.

Notice the distinction. This big corporation is growing so fast that the men it selects for selling shiftly to-day must be big enough for highly paid executive positions to-morrow. We want men first; men who can read the future of the job; men who can stand the gaff of hard training and hard selling as a preparation for bigger things. If "what do I get" is the first thought that strikes you, don't answer. If "where do I get to" is what instrests you, you may be in line. Don't answer unless you have the vision to see big things find the courage to go after them. Give age and phone number. Write Box 155, 919 Brokaw Building. What a green woman said:
They gave me your mame and address in Europe and advised me to come to you because you would take good care of me; to trust you because you are thistworth; to believe you because you give the best services to the poor girls, and charge them acting for it. nothing for it.
That's what a green woman just arrived from Europe told me.
That's the way they think of LAZARE'S AGENCY all over the world.
